Thanks for reaching out to the Department—because this issue—divisive topics is handled by the Human Rights commission and the AG's office the Department has not issued much information on this topic—but I did find this document on the Attorney General's website—hope it helps!

Hello Diana, I hope all is well. Is there somebody at the DOE who can speak with a teacher and principal here in Newfound with specifics about what she can say or not say regarding issues that might pertain to divisive topics?

Pierre
